Clearance Information Required

A copy of the documents we hold relating to this shipment are attached for your reference.

Please note, the shipment may have already been delivered but the following clearance information is still required.

The paperwork indicates this shipment is returning to the UK.

In order to relieve or partially relieve the receiver of paying revenue we require the below information:

Confirm the reason the items are returning to the UK.
Confirm if any alterations have taken place.
If alterations have taken place, please confirm if the alterations were made under warranty or non warranty.

Provide original value of goods and if applicable repair costs
Provide a copy of the export entry.
Any other information to be taken into account when completing the Customs declaration eg. EORI number, Commodity Code and CPC.

We, the importer, authorise DHL to perform Customs Clearance on our behalf acting as our direct representatives. DHL cannot accept liability for errors made due to undisclosed information. We will be responsible for checking the declarations, and ensuring the disclosure of any discrepancies and making any additional payments to HMRC where appropriate. Routine Customs clearance is included in DHL shipping rates. We understand that Government taxes are payable in addition to the shipping charges, and will be disbursed separately. We authorise DHL to invoice our account for these charges where appropriate.

A copy of the Customs entry will be supplied electronically within 48 hours to your designated contact. However, if you need to request a copy of a Customs entry, please register your request at www.dhl.co.uk/invoiceenquiries or contact Customer Accounting by telephone on 08442 480 777
